Blurb For Post

The new Nationality and Borders Bill will mean thousands of victims of modern slavery missing out on the support they deserve, and criminals free to exploit them further. Many of these people are from the UK. MPs have the chance to amend this law but they need to act quickly. Please write to your MP now before it's too late. Traumatic events can take years before the victim can talk about it. Yet a new law proposes penalising #modernslavery victims for not telling the authorities they've been trafficked straight away. Please ask your MP to vote for urgent amendments. Details at: URL here

Blurb For Post

It can take time before a victim of slavery can trust someone enough to say what happened. But a new law assumes if someone doesn't disclose immediately, they're lying. Urgent amendments are needed to the legislation - ask your MP to help.
